

Contemporary Conflicts: Ukraine, Gaza and the World Order

organized by

National Institute of Advanced Studies, Bangalore

NIAS Europe Studies and IPRI initiative and

Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam

School of International Relations and Politics

Date & Venue:

09 July 2024, MG University, Kottayam

Programme

1100-1115 hrs

Welcome & Introduction

C Vinodhan, Professor and Director, School of International Relations and Politics, Mahatma Gandhi University

&

D Suba Chandran, Dean and Professor, School of Conflict and Security Studies, NIAS

1115-1245 hrs

Session I: War in Ukraine and the World Order

The Russia Ukraine War: A Challenge to the Rules Based International Order

Adoum Idriss Adoum, Research scholar, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

Soft Power Versus Realpolitik in the Ukraine conflict: Lessons for the Global South

Jonathan Kithi Alexander, Research Scholar, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

Historical Continuities and the Russia-Ukraine Conflict: Soviet Legacy and Contemporary Geopolitics

Amal Pullarkkatt, Assistant Professor, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

National Institute of Advanced Studies
NIAS

മഹാത്മാഗാന്ധി സർവ്വകലാശാല, കേരളം
Mahatma Gandhi University, Kerala
महात्मा गांधी विश्वविद्यालय, केरल

Ukraine: Nationalist veracity and Russian Predicament

TK Jabir, Assistant Professor, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

1215-1245 hrs: Discussion

Padmashree Anandhan, Research Associate, NIAS

Govind Anoop, Research Scholar, St. Joseph University, Bangalore

1245-1330 hrs: Lunch

1330-1500 hrs

Session II: War in Gaza and the World Order

Free Palestine: Students led Campus Protests in the US

Johny Augustine, Professor, St. Ambrose University, USA

Displacement Crisis in War Torn Regions: Ukraine and Gaza

Lirar Pulikkalath, Assistant Professor, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

About NIAS-MGU Workshop on Ukraine, Gaza and the World Order

The workshop's trace the fallouts of the war on the global order to project a forecast for 2024. and, in doing so, facilitate the capacity building of young scholars interested in Europe studies and Middle East. The workshop aims to provide a platform for young scholars to present and form network.

About NIAS Europe Studies

NIAS Europe Studies is a part of the Institute's areas studies initiatives. It focuses on the following verticals from domestic politics, migration, climate change, S&T and Europe's external relations. Besides the research focus, NIAS Europe Studies also aims to create a knowledge base in India on contemporary Europe;

Peace and Coexistence in the light of recent conflict in Gaza: Mapping of the International Responses

MV Bijulal, Assistant Professor, School of International Relations and Politics, MG University

Israel and Hamas' end game

Ayan Datta, Research Intern, NIAS

UN Interventions

Cris Fernando, Undergraduate Student, St Joseph's University, Bangalore

1430-1500 hrs: Discussion

Padmashree Anandhan, Research Associate, NIAS

Govind Anoop, Research Scholar, St. Joseph University, Bangalore

1500-1530 hrs: Conclusion

D Suba Chandran & C Vinodhan

1530-1600 hrs: Tea

build capacity among young scholars in India to form a Europe young scholar network in India.

About the Institute for Contemporary Chinese Studies (ICCS)

The ICCS was established by the Mahatma Gandhi University in 2011 under the UGC Area Studies Programme with a view to promote Teaching, Research and Collaborative Programme on China and China-India studies in a comparative analytical mode that shall generate knowledge and information on these societies. The ICCS mission is to emerge as a leading research centre in Asian Studies in general and specifically China -India Studies focusing on research, education, policy studies, community relations, international relations, academic exchange and mobility, and public discourse.

NIAS Conflict Resolution and Peace Research Programme
International Peace Research Initiative (IPRI)

Peace Research | Capacity Building | Creating Network | Peace Lectures